Dear Mr. Morisy:

This responds to your request dated, July 16, 2013, to INTERPOL Washington, pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) for copies of any objections to agency data gathering practices received by this agency from telecommunications and web service providers, received between 2008 and July 16, 2013.

We received your request on July 16, 2013. Please refer to the above FOIA number assigned to your request in any additional correspondence.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV 2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

A search of the INTERPOL Washington system of records and administrative files, and all INTERPOL Washington offices that might reasonably be expected to have responsive documents produced no records.

If you are not satisfied with INTERPOL Washington's action on your request, you may appeal by writing to:

Co-Director
Office of Information Policy
U.S. Department of Justice

Suite 11050
1425 New York Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530-0001

You must make your appeal in writing and it must be received by the Office of Information Policy within 60-days of the date of the letter denying your request. In addition to mailing your appeal, you may also submit your appeal through the OIP eFOIA portal at <http://www.justice.gov/oip/efoia-portal.html>. Both the letter and envelope, or the email should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

If you have any questions concerning this request, please contact Gordon Johnson at (202) 616-0201.

Sincerely,

Shawn A. Bray
Director
